

THE SCHOOL OF MADINA | PURIFICATION & PRAYER
FINAL EXAM
SHAYKH AHMAD SAAD AL-AZHARI

| | |
|---------------|------------|
| Student Name: | Score: /20 |
|---------------|------------|

Please choose the correct answer

1. Everything that comes out from the private parts nullifies wudū
 - a. True
 - b. False

2. While on the bus, Zaid accidentally bumped into a woman, there was skin contact and he was aroused. Is his wudu nullified?
 - a. Yes
 - b. No

3. Water is deemed altered when:
 - a. its color, odor and taste changes
 - b. anyone of the above qualities change
 - c. any two of the above qualities change

4. If sugar is added to water and changes it, we can:
 - a. Use it for wudū
 - b. Not use it at all
 - c. Drink or cook with it

5. Intention is:
 - a. Thinking about an action
 - b. Serious determination to do an action
 - c. Aiming to an action and starting it

6. Wiping the head from the front is:
 - a. Permissible
 - b. Recommended
 - c. Obligatory

7. Heavy beard is:
 - a. Long beard
 - b. Curly beard
 - c. The one that covers the skin

8. Lisa has been performing wudu for years now without wiping her ears. Her wudu is invalid.
 - a. True
 - b. False

9. The obligations of Ghusl are
 - a. Five
 - b. Three
 - c. Four

10. Mary completed her menstrual cycle and performed a ghusl forgetting to rinse her mouth. Her ghusl is invalid, unless she goes back and rinses her mouth.
 - a. True
 - b. False

11. Umar performed tayammum and started praying. While in Salah, he heard that water is back, what does Umar need to do?
 - a. Terminate his prayer and go for wudu
 - b. Continue his prayer
 - c. Complete his prayer, do wudu and redo it again

12. Bakr woke up late and performed tayammum to pray Subh in time. He then later prayed Dhuhr without making wudu. His Dhuhr prayer is valid.
 - a. True
 - b. False

13. Zayd performed Asr during half time of the soccer game while in shorts. Parts of his thighs were exposed during it. His prayer is invalid.
 - a. True
 - b. False

14. Using a barrier is recommended:
 - a. When afraid of interruption
 - b. When praying alone
 - c. When praying in a group

15. Uthman started the surah after Fatiha but never completed it. What should he do?
- Go back to it
 - Continue without worry
 - Continue and perform sujud as-sahw
16. During his prayer, Ahmed swallowed the remaining food between his teeth. What should Ahmed do?
- Redo the prayer because it is invalid
 - Perform sujud as-sahw
 - Nothing, his prayer is fine
17. Sara came late to the congregational prayer of Asr and joined in while the Imam was in the bowing position, she rushed in without saying “Allahu akbar” whatsoever. She realized this only after the salat. What should she do?
- Perform the prostration of forgetfulness after the Salam
 - Redo the prayer because it is invalid
 - Nothing and the prayer is valid
18. The following are NOT obligations of the Salah: Opening takbir, Fatiha and Salam.
- True
 - False
19. Aisha, during her pregnancy, decided that she would start every obligatory prayer while sitting and remain that way until the salam. Is her prayer valid?
- Yes
 - No
 - Yes, only if she made an intention for ease
20. Badr was praying Maghrib alone and laughed out loud upon seeing his child dancing in front of him. What should he do?
- Make a prostration of forgetfulness before the Salam
 - Make a prostration of forgetfulness after the Salam
 - Redo the prayer if the time of the prayer remains
 - Redo the prayer irrespective of the time

BONUS QUESTION (A)

If one is uncertain about whether he prayed three or four rakas, what should he or she do?

Option 1

- A. Assume the lower number and perform what is needed to complete the prayer, and;
- B. prostrate before-the-salam.

Option 2

- A. Assume the lower number and perform what is needed to complete the prayer, and;
- B. prostrates after-the-salam.

Option 3

- A. Assume the higher number and;
- B. prostrate before-the-salam.

BONUS QUESTION (B):

Zayd missed a sura after the Fatiha in a sunna prayer. Is his prayer valid?

If yes, why?

If no, why?

BONUS QUESTION (C) :

Sara rushed into her prayer to catch the time saying “Allahu akbar” but forgot to raise her hands.

Choose the correct course of action for this forgetfulness:

a) She must do the prostration of forgetfulness before the salam. Explain why?

b) She must do the prostration of forgetfulness after the salam. Explain why?

c) She must not prostrate the prostration of forgetfulness, why?
